

Lending a Helping Hand

This holiday season, the staff at Eyecare Associates of Lee's Summit spent time giving back to the community. The staff adopted two children from the Lee's Summit Social Services Angel Tree.

Community service is very important to everyone here at Eyecare Associates of Lee's Summit.

Adopting less fortunate children in Lee's Summit at Christmas time is one of the many ways the staff gives back to the community each year.

